RAILROAD YARD SALE & RAFFLE
AT THE B&O RAILROAD MUSEUM HISTORIC ROUNDHOUSE

Baltimore, MD – On Saturday, September 7, 2013 the B&O Railroad Museum will host a railroad yard sale and raffle of items from its Museum storage areas and warehouse. “This is a collector’s ultimate adventure!” stated executive director, Courtney Wilson. Participants will be able to dig through an incredible selection of interesting and decorative train-themed flea market items – all for sale at great prices.

The Railroad Raffle will also kick off and run through September 30. Raffle tickets are $10 each or 5 for $45. Raffle items include one pair of AMTRAK round-trip tickets to New York City, a B&O passenger coach seat, a behind the scenes tour for up to twelve people of the Museum’s restoration facility and a train ride in a private rail car, a diesel locomotive bell, and a birthday party package. Raffle tickets will be available at http://www.borail.org/Event-Calendar.aspx or by contacting the Museum Store at 410-752-2490 x 213.

This once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for collectors will allow them to acquire something truly unique for their homes or hobby. Please note that items offered in this sale are not part of the B&O Railroad Museum’s accessioned collection. All proceeds will benefit the Museum’s restoration efforts. All sales are final.

About the Museum
The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Museum, a full affiliate of the Smithsonian Institution, is dedicated to the preservation and interpretation of American railroading and its impact on American society, culture and economy. The Museum is home to the oldest, most comprehensive collection of railroad artifacts in the Western Hemisphere including an unparalleled roster of 19th and 20th century railroad equipment. The 40-acre historic site is regarded as the birthplace of American Railroading and includes the 1851 Mt. Clare Station, the 1884 Baldwin Roundhouse and first mile of commercial railroad track in America.
